"Landscape's Lament" Sweeps Grammy Awards!

Unknown Singer/Songwriter Takes Hollywood By Surprise

In case you missed the Grammy Awards, unknown singer/songwriter Gerry Kiffe stormed the American folk scene by surprise recently by winning awards for best new folk artist, best guitarist, and best in whimsical.

Gerry Kiffe, general manager of GardenSoft, recently returned from a world-wide tour promoting his new hit single, "Landscape's Lament", which chronicles a day in the life of a landscaper

Gerry now remains incognito to the general public and has decided to perform only for landscape contractors, architects and designers.
